Music by
B. HEISEL HARRISON.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The lyrics are as follows:

We're on our way to-day, — We all are
He is a dog of war, — And when they Ber- lin bound. — And soon the Kai- ser's back — Will be up - on the ground. Ev-ery one to-day — let him loose — He'll make it hot e- nough — To cook the Kai - ser's goose. If you want to be —

— is get. ting in the fray — So I'll just put you wise as to the quick- est way — There is a man in town who is call - ing you. He's call - ing for the boys who want to go. He gives a trip that's free to Ger - ma - ny. There's a train that leaves for
— there when the goose is done — Just take this tip and go to see him on the run —

The piano accompaniment includes dynamic markings such as mf (mezzo-forte) and p (piano). The score concludes with a final piano flourish.

CHORUS.
